Letter from Washington.

Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.

A question which is being discussed with a feeling of interest just now is: What will be the effect of the veto message of the President on the Sherman reconstruction bill? The Radicals are themselves divided on what should be the proper way of meeting the message. Some of them are not averse to allowing a discussion to arise thereon, in which the Democrats would be allowed to take part without being stopped by a call for the previous question, in order to run the whole measure over until the end of the session, and defeat it, so that when the next Congress meets, one harsher in its provisions could be framed and passed. In that case, of course, it will be charged that the President and his friends have been mainly instrumental in delaying the settlement of the national difficulties, and a remedy of more stringent reconstruction laws, and impeachment of Mr. Johnson, would be called up. It is not certain that the Conservatives will not endeavor to defeat this bill, acting on the principle with which the President vetoes it, of combatting with all their might a thing so illegal and unconstitutional as the act now awaiting executive action, leaving with the Radicals the great responsibility of proceeding further in their scale of progression.

The President has already signed the bill which passed Congress making the office of Public Printer elective by the Senate, and the probabilities are that Mr. Defrees will be reinstated in that position on or before the 1st of March next.

Many have lately inclined to the belief that the President has wavered from the policy which at the outset of his administration he adopted as his guide; but recent events have shown without the shadow of a doubt, that he has never departed an iota from those principles, and in several instances of very late dates, interviews have been had at the White House by several persons with the President solely on national topics, and in every case Mr. Johnson has reiterated his belief in the justice and soundness of the views which have established for the words "my policy" a world wide reputation. Another strong feature of his opinion is that the people are bound, sooner or later, to acquiesce in his views, and lend their powerful aid to the practical adoption thereof.

What shall we do? There are two courses open: one is to take our chances with the Supreme Court. That requires time, and the negroes are voting in the meanwhile. This is to be considered. Then we are to consider will Congress (supposing the Court to decide favorably) be balked by the Supreme Court? Then we must consider that there is a probability that two of the judges on that Court will not live twelve months. And Governor Pierpont stated in his address Saturday evening that the Supreme Court have just adopted a rule not to meddle with political questions for the present. The other course is to call a convention at once, accept the terms, and fight the battle in Congress. We go there with about sixty members.

Under the provisional government we have the military and negro suffrage; if admitted into the Union, we have negro suffrage and get rid of the military. Pending the provisional government the men proscribed by the third clause of the amendment cannot vote; they can vote when the State is admitted. Then this is to be considered, the quicker we get into the Union the better; there we are a State and we can control our own affairs—changing our State Constitution if necessary. There we are out of the jaws of the beast that is ready to devour us.

Again: the quicker this State Constitution is formed the greater will be the influence of the whites in shaping it. Postpone, and the Radicals will organize the negroes against us. And lastly, if the Legislature does not call a convention, Botts and the negroes will by primary meetings.

We are not recommending either of these courses. We are inviting the people to think.—Charlottesville Chronicle.

WHAT THE PRESIDENT WILL DO—OFFICIAL.—The National Republican, on yesterday, says:

"If any mischief-making Radicals suppose that President Johnson intends to "pocket" the military reconstruction bill which reached him on Friday evening last, they will find themselves very much mistaken. He is no such a man. He will not allow it to be said that he obstructed the great work of reconstruction in that way. The two Houses of Congress will have an opportunity of making the bills a law, notwithstanding it is clearly unconstitutional in many of its provisions. If it becomes law—if that is the best the thirty-ninth Congress can produce, after laboring for two years—the President will do the best he can with it. He will execute it, and, if possible, will bring harmony out of the present national chaos, through its agency, unless prevented by the constitutional interference and check of that august and ever-to be respected co-ordinate branch of the Government, the Supreme Court of the United States. We have no doubt that the President will return the reconstruction bill to Congress at the earliest possible moment."

The N. Y. volunteer Firemen's Association are about to present the "Independent" Fire Company, of Columbia, S. C., with a hose carriage and hoes, costing about $9,000.

Professor Pierce, of Cambridge, will be tendered, it is understood, the appointment of Superintendent of the United States Coast Survey, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Professor Bache.

CONFIRMED.—The Columbus Sun learns authentically that ex Gov. Jas. Johnson has at last been confirmed as Collector of the Port of Savannah, by the Senate, and that he has withdrawn the resignation recently tendered.

An old Mississippi planter has hung himself because of his inability to retrieve his fortune, ruined by the rebellion.

OBJECTION 1.
I'M TOO POOR; I CAN'T AFFORD IT.
ANSWER.
If you are too poor to save less than half a dollar per week, at from 30 to 35 years of age, or proportionately at other ages, and find it so difficult to do so—should you be taken away by death, how bitterly poverty will strike home to your widow and children, or those dependent on you! Is it not worth a struggle to avoid this, and give them at least $1,000 by paying so small a sum? It costs just $2,00 per month to insure $1,000 at the age of 32 years.

OBJECTION 2.
I've talked to several of my friends, and they all advise me to have nothing to do with it.
ANSWER.
Will your friends undertake to provide for those you leave behind, in case you do not live long enough to save money? Ask them, and be guided by their answer.

OBJECTION 3.
I can't make up my mind; call again.
ANSWER.
Your other objections have been answered. I appeal to your own common sense, to answer this for yourself, aided by
THREE PRACTICAL REFLECTIONS.
FIRST.—Nothing is so uncertain as Life.
SECOND.—No provision is perfect that is contingent upon the duration of your Life, which is not immediate.
THIRD.—The only immediate provision is that provided by Life Insurance.

The Fall Session of this Institution closed 23rd. day of December. The Spring Session opened the 1st. Wednesday in January, and will continue 20 weeks.
The success of this school has been without a parallel. A new building has just been completed, by which a large additional number can be accommodated. We are determined to make our pupils as comfortable as they can be made anywhere, and to afford them all the advantage for a thorough and extensive education, that can be found at any First class Female College, North or South.
The location is a most delightful one. The Mineral Water is too well known to the whole country to need a remark. Even invalid young ladies may secure a thorough education, and at the same time the restoration of their health. Reference is made to every intelligent Physician in the State, as well as to the hundreds who have found relief here.
The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required. In the single item of dress parents can save 25 per cent. of the entire expense incurred by sending to Boarding Schools located in cities or villages. This Institution is certainly one of the cheapest and most easy of access in the Southern States. Besides, it offers the most superior advantages in every respect.

A PROPOSITION.
IN WHICH YOU ARE INTERESTED.
I PROPOSE for the protection of the citizens of Raleigh and surrounding country, against the imposition of those so-called Cost Stores, to furnish each and every person, the New York Cost of any goods they may want to buy; by this means they can tell whether they are buying goods at Cost or paying a profit on them.
Call before going to any of those Cost Stores so-called, and let me give you a memorandum of Cost prices.
Most of my large stock I will sell at cost but I have goods that I will not sell in that way, and neither will those merchants who make such a flourish about selling at Cost.
No merchant in this place has purchased his Goods any cheaper than I bought mine. Any assertion to the contrary is false; and I will guarantee to sell Goods as low as any Cost House. All I ask is an opportunity to prove the truthfulness of this assertion.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, SEATON GALES, } Editors.

Thursday Evening, Feb. 28, 1867.

Discussion in the House.

Mr. Scoggin, in the House to day, attempted to play the same game, that Mr. Richardson attempted in the Senate on yesterday. We notified our readers on yesterday, that the scheme of the Holdenites was to force the Legislature to commit itself fully against the Congressional scheme of reconstruction, or Mr. Sherman's bill, in order to make capital with the people in favor of a Convention to be called by primary meetings.

Mr. Scoggin, this morning, presented in the House the same preamble and resolution, we believe offered in the Senate on yesterday by Mr. Richardson. It will be seen that the resolution proposes to establish the government upon a "true and loyal basis." Mr. Morehead, one of the Commoners from Guilford, moved to amend the resolution by adding the words, "without regard to color." This seemed to be entirely unexpected and threw the whole scheme hors du combat. Mr. Morehead desired Mr. Scoggin to accept his amendment, but this Mr. S. refused; upon which we are told Mr. Morehead proceeded to address the House in one of the most practical, well timed and scorching speeches made during the session. Mr. Logan replied to Mr. Morehead, when Mr. M. replied, literally taking the rind off Mr. L. Messrs. Davis and others followed, and the whole matter was committed to the Committee on Federal relations. It was shown in the debate, that the pretence of the Holdenites to be so friendly to the colored people, was nothing but pretence—that they only wished to use the negro for the accomplishment of their own selfish ends. We have been promised a further notice of Mr. Morehead's speech, by one who heard it. It was wholly impromptu, and Mr. M. could not attempt to write it out.

Position of Senators.

On yesterday, Mr. Speed called up the report of the committee on Federal Relations and his preamble and resolutions which had been submitted to them; moved their adoption, and addressed the Senate in support of them. When he closed, Mr. Richardson offered to substitute them by a preamble and resolution endorsing the Sherman reconstruction bill. Mr. Outlaw moved to lay on the table, and the vote showed eleven nays. The Standard, of this city, publishes, in to-day's issue, the vote, and claims the eleven in the negative as supporters of Mr. Richardson's substitute. Such an exhibit, every one knows, misrepresented the views of most of them, hence, it will be seen that the gentlemen explained their position in the Senate. On the strait-out question of substituting Mr. Richardson's preamble and resolution for Mr. Speed's, we presume there would have been but two votes in its favor, Mr. Richardson, and Mr. Harris, of Rutherford. Several voted to lay on the table, who were opposed to any action whatever by the Legislature.

"Regulators."

The Charlotte Guardian says that the following "order" has been handed in for publication. We suppose it has been issued by the military authorities of the Department, though it does not appear in the usual form. "Regulators" therefore in North Carolina are in a fair way to be "regulated," which every friend of order most devoutly desires. It is perfectly manifest that the people in those sections where these outrages have occurred, have been either too indifferent to them or really too cowardly—that's the word—and the officials equally so, to arrest or report them to the Governor. Let them be arrested and "regulated."

The civil authorities of North Carolina and South Carolina being unable to capture or disperse the bands of outlaws calling themselves "Regulators," who are reported as engaged in robbing and murdering freedmen and in committing depredations and outrages upon the persons and property of well disposed citizens, all Commanding Officers of Posts within this Department are directed to use every means at their disposal to rid the country of these banditti. Whenever reports of outrages are received, parties will be sent in pursuit of these "Regulators," and when resistance to arrest is made, they will be treated as "Guerrillas" and summarily punished. All prisoners so arrested will be held in military confinement and the case reported to headquarters at Charleston.

Speaker of the Senate.

Mr. Speaker Manly, of the Senate, notified that body of his resignation as Speaker, to take effect to-morrow at 12 o'clock. This will impose the necessity of electing a successor, a position which we presume will not be difficult to do. Senator Wilson, of Mecklenburg, and Senator Hall, of New Hanover, have both been spoken of in our hearing for the position. It is probable other gentlemen may be voted for.

SUPREME COURT.—The Supreme Court adjourned to-day.

CHOWAN FEMALE INSTITUTE.—We are gratified to learn that this old and popular institution continues to grow in favor with the public. Prof. McDowell writes that there are upwards of 90 students in attendance.

At the approaching commencement, Rev. C. C. Bitting, of Greenville, S. C., will deliver the annual address before the literary societies.

NEW MAP.—Mr. Secretary Best showed us to-day a specimen copy of a map of the State, of which he is proprietor, and which will have the latest corrections and improvements, and it is to be highly embelished, and will soon be offered by agents on subscription. The map will be a valuable one, and will be offered to the people of the State, on the most favorable terms.

Hon. W. D. Kelley, of Pa.—N. C. Senate.

On yesterday the following proceedings occurred in our State Senate:

Mr. Clark, of Edgecomb, asked leave of the Senate to notice some very gross charges on his constituents, contained in a speech, delivered in the Congress of the U. S., on the 12th Feb., 1867, by the Hon. Wm. D. Kelley, and read from the speech the following extract:

"Near Tarboro' two children, girls, one eleven and the other thirteen years of age, were last summer apprenticed to their former owner. The girls' mother had formerly been whipped to death under the orders of the wife of the man to whom they are now apprenticed, then the master and owner of the murdered woman. Recent information shows that these children, who are still held as apprentices, are nearly starved and not half clad; the only garment they wore, while picking cotton in the inclement weather of December, was a straight gown, short in the skirt, and with short sleeves, with neither shoes, stockings, nor bonnets."

I represent the people and locality alluded to in this extract, and I state here, that it may go throughout the length and breadth of the land, that there is not a word of truth in the above; and I have never heard of any circumstance or rumor upon which such a charge could be fabricated, and my colleagues in the other branch of the Legislature, Messrs. Baker and Woodard, join me in this total and authoritative denial of this foul slander, and we invite and challenge any investigation into it.

The charges are made in the Halls of Congress, to provoke hostile legislation on the very people who are thus arraigned, where they have no representation, and are denied all opportunity of being heard or of defence; and when Mr. Kelley brings forward such charges, under such circumstance, I humbly conceive, he is at least guilty of a greater wrong than the one he imputes to those defenceless people.

I will further state, that there has been as little crime or lawlessness in my county as in any locality in the United States; even in the refined district represented by Mr. Kelley himself. The rights of the Freedmen are respected. They are well paid for their services, behave well and seem contented; and such is the reputation of my county for correct conduct and liberal wages towards freedmen, that there has been considerable immigration of freedmen to the county in quest of employment. Comparatively very few have been on the criminal docket, and the rights and positions of both races are mutually respected, to the manifest benefit of both parties.

The following extract is from the same speech:

"Near Hillsborough, in Orange County, in November of 1866, a freedman who had raised a small quantity of corn, invited a few of his friends to assist him in shucking it. In the evening while the party were singing and dancing, a rebel named ——C—— heard them, armed himself with a gun, went to the freedman's house, and with oaths and curses demanded to know what they were doing. The freedmen, frightened, attempted to escape, when he deliberately shot one of their number, killing him almost instantly. The coroner's jury returned a verdict of 'accidental homicide,' and there the matter rests."

Mr. Berry, of Orange, said:

Touching the shooting of a freedman in the County of Orange, it is not true in fact. It is true that a man was shot; but not under the circumstances stated in the speech alluded to. The gentleman who unfortunately shot the freedman was at his own home; was waked up late at night by the noise and rudeness of the freedmen in a house close to his residence. He warned them to cease their bad behavior and retire to their homes. They refused to obey his order; it was dark and he discharged a gun, intending to alarm and disperse the crowd; but with no intention of shooting any one, and was not aware that anybody was shot until some hours afterwards. He is a man about 65 years of age, peaceable and quiet in his intercourse with everybody; is a gentleman of high moral character, and is, and has been for years, a member of the Presbyterian Church, and an Elder in that Church. It is a grave charge, that the civil authorities has taken no notice of the act, or that the matter rests without investigation. My attention was called to this charge last week. On my return home, and on inquiry, I was informed that the party had been bound over to answer the charge at our next term of the Superior Court, which takes place the second Monday in March next.

Mr. Speaker: being the representative from the County of Orange in the Senate, I deemed it my duty to state the facts as they exist.

Mr. Perkins of Pitt, said:—The Senator from Edgecomb having alluded to the speech of the Hon. William D. Kelly, of Penn., delivered in the House of Representatives Feb. 12th, 1867, I find on page 4th of his printed speech, reference made to North Carolina and to the acts of some citizens of my county.

Justice demands that I should state what are the facts: Messrs. Drew & Co. made a partial verbal engagement for the rent of my plantation for the year 1866, but the engagement fell through from the fact that Messrs. Drew & Co. failed to make their first payment according to the understanding. It is not true so far as I know, that Mr. Carney or any one else ever threatened me with the burning of my dwelling or out buildings on account of renting my land to Northern men.

Messrs. Drew & Co. having failed to comply with their engagement, I rented in a few days, the same plantation to Messrs. Clapp (of the Freedmen's Bureau) Esterbrook & Porter, all Northern men, for the year 1866, and they lived on the plantation, cultivated it with a large number of freedmen and made a large crop of cotton. In fact on several occasions Mess. Clapp & Co. were in company with Mr. Carney at my store, and occasionally Mr. Clapp went deer hunting with him; and I have yet to learn that any of the firm were ever threatened or troubled, they or their laborers.

I have said this much in defence of my county, Pitt (improperly quoted Beaufort,) and to correct a false representation, which might be made to our prejudice, as we desire emigration among us, of good, thrifty, and industrious men, and I believe Northern men, Union men, or freedmen, are as safe in Pitt county as in any section of the State.

There are some statements in this portion of Mr. Kelly's speech that are true; to wit:

A negro boy was killed in the neighborhood by some one unknown, and a Federal officer was shot on going to the house of Reddic Carney for the purpose of arresting him, and who persisted in going up stairs in search of said Carney after being warned by the wife not to go up. The officer started up stairs and was fired upon from the head of the stairway, was wounded and subsequently died on my premises, at that time rented to Mess. Clapp, Esterbrook and Porter. The military have investigated the case and I believe disposed of it. As to the killing of the negro boy &c., Mr. Carney could not have possibly told Mr. Drew that he killed him; as I was in Goldsboro at that time with Mr. Drew, when we were informed by a gentleman just from the county, that such a homicide had been committed, and Mr. Drew went immediately North and never saw Mr. Carney afterwards. As to the killing of the two boys by Mr. Carney, I never heard of it.

I will further state that during the present year, as well as the last, a number of plantations are, and were rented to Northern men who successfully carried on farming on a large scale.

SENATE.

THURSDAY MORNING, Feb. 28.

The Senate was called to order at 10 o'clock, A. M.

Mr. Speed, of Pasquotank, asked that the clerk read an article in the Raleigh Standard of this morning, headed "a handsome vote in the Senate of North Carolina, in favor of the recent action of Congress." Which being concluded, Mr. Speed said that he wished to place himself right in regard to the amendment of the Senator from Moore—Mr. Richardson. He voted against laying the amendment and resolution on the table, that he might have an opportunity of voting against the adoption of the amendment of the Senator from Moore, and that he might have an opportunity of placing himself upon the record in favor of the original resolution.

Messrs. Cowles, Robins and Love disclaimed any intention of favoring the amendment offered by the Senator from Moore, but voted against laying on the table because it carried the resolutions of Mr. Speed with it.

Mr. Leach said that he placed himself right at the time.

Mr. Cowles introduced a bill to establish a public road in Surry County.

On his motion the rules were suspended and the bill passed.

Mr. Wiggins introduced a resolution in favor of the Committee, appointed to investigate the affairs of the North Carolina Railroad. On his motion the resolution passed under a suspension of the rules.

Mr. Wiggins called up a resolution in favor of the Attorney General, which was adopted.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Various reports were made from sundry committees, mostly of no public interest.

On motion of Mr. Speed the rules were suspended and a resolution appointing a committee of examination, as to what State debts were incurred in aid of the late rebellion, was taken up. Rejected.

Mr. Harris, of Franklin, moved to suspend the rules and take up a bill to incorporate the N. C. Land Agency Company, not agreed to.

The Speaker had a communication read offering his resignation to take place to-morrow at 12 M.

Mr. Cunningham demanded the yeas and nays. Agreed to, yeas 25 nays 11.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

THURSDAY, Feb. 28.

The House was called to order at 10 o'clock A. M.

Mr. Scoggins introduced the following resolution:

WHEREAS, the Federal relations between and among the States composing the government of the United States, have at least, to a very great extent been dissolved, and whereas, it is the duty of the loyal people of said government and each of its members to render all the aid in their power to unite and firmly establish said government upon a true and loyal basis:

Be it therefore Resolved, That it is the sense of this House that we accept in good faith the act recently passed by the Congress of the United States, for the purpose of re organizing the rebel States, and will use every effort to carry out the same upon a true and loyal basis.

Mr. Hutchison offered a substitute, providing for submitting the question of "Convention" or "No Convention," to a vote of the people.

Mr. Morehead moved to amend the original resolution by inserting after the word "people" in the preamble the words without regard to color.

Mr. Scoging refused to accept this amendment.

Mr. May moved to lay the amendment and resolution on the table.

Mr. McClammy opposed the motion, as he thought such action would be misconstrued.—The yeas and nays were ordered and the House refused to lay on the table. Messrs. Autry, Collins, May, Turnbull and Williams, of Martin, voting in the negative.

Mr. Richardson moved that the House go into committee of the whole on this matter.

This motion was laid on the table on motion of Mr. Hutchison.

Mr. Kenan, of Duplin, moved to refer the whole subject to the Committee on Federal Relations, and stated that he was prepared now to vote against any such proposition, but thought that a subject of so much importance should be appropriately referred and considered.

Mr. Logan supported the resolution as introduced. He believed that the "Sherman substitute" embodied the best terms the rebel States could get, and for this reason he was for adopting it at once—not that he approved its principles fully. He had urged the adoption of the Howard amendment for the same reason. That had been rejected, and, as he predicted then, harder terms were exacted.

Mr. Morehead addressed the House in support of his amendment—proposing to insert the words "without regard to color."

[His remarks were characterized by much force and humor, and elicited marked attention. They will be noticed more fully hereafter.]

After further discussion, in which Messrs. Richardson, Davis and Ross opposed the resolution, and favored its reference. The resolution was referred by the following vote.

YEAS—Messrs. Allen, Autry, Baker, Boyd, Bowe, Brown, Chadwick, Clark, Clements, Collins, Crawford, of Macon, Crawford, of Rowan, Daniel, Davis, Durham, Foard, Galloway, Gambril, Garris, Granberry, Guess, Harper, Henderson, Hodnett, Holderby, Horton, of Watauga, Houston, Hutchison, Kelsey, Kenan, Latham, of Craven, Lee, Long, Lowe, Lutterloh, May, Martin, McArthur, McClammy, McKay, McRae, Moore, of H, Morehead, Morrisett, Neal, Patton, Peebles, Perry, of Carteret, Perry, of Wake, Reinhardt, Richardson, Rogers, Rosebro, Russ, Shelton, Smith, of Guilford, Stone, Sudderth, Turnbull, Umstead, Waugh, Westmoreland, Whitfield, Whitley, Williams, of Harnett, Williams, of Martin, Williams, of Pitt, Woodard—68.

NAYS—Messrs. Ashworth, Beasely, Black, Blair, Blythe, Bryson, Carson, Garrett, Godwin, Hinnant, Horton, of Wilkes, Jenkins, of Gaston, Jenkins, of Granville, Logan, Lyon, Moore, of Chatham, Morton, Rountree, Scoggin, Teague, Trull, Vestal, Wilson, of Forsythe, Williams, of Yancey, Womble—25.

On motion of Mr. Moore, of Hertford, the resolution was also made the special order for the third Monday in August next.

Mr. Hutchison moved to reconsider the vote by which the House laid the Penitentiary bill on the table last evening.

Mr. Long hoped this motion would prevail, as he thought the House voted under a misapprehension last night. The bill provides for submitting the question of "Penitentiary" or "No Penitentiary" to a vote of the people, and there was precedent for this. The question had been submitted in 1846. He hoped the vote would be reconsidered and that the bill would pass.

The motion to reconsider prevailed.

Mr. Logan moved to postpone the bill indefinitely.

Much discussion ensued.

Mr. Holderby offered a substitute for the bill which was read for information.

The motion to postpone indefiintely was rejected, and pending further action the House took recess until 7½ o'clock P. M.

History of the Late War.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—I beg leave through your columns, to ask the attention of the honorable General Assembly now in session, to the necessity for the truth of the future history of the late war, that all the facts connected with it shall be collected and published by authority; in order that justice may be done to the gallant men who responded so promptly to the call of the State in the Spring of 1861.

There was no Southern State whose citizens responded to her call more promptly, more numerously, or who fought more bravely and served more faithfully, and with greater zeal, than did those of the old North State. The soldiers of no sister State exhibited greater heroism than did hers; in proof of which there is not a single battle-field from the Potomac to the Savannah, where there is not to be found a larger number of the dead of her sons than those of any of her sisters. Her sons fought, bled, suffered and died in the cause to which she devoted them, without being honored in proportion to their numbers and valor, when compared with those of other States, by the government whose flag they bore.

Now, the cause they served so well having failed, and they lost all save honor and a consciousness of having done their whole duty, the living and the dead have no one to look to for justice and a true record of their deeds for the present and future, but their mother State, in obedience to whose call they so gallantly responded and gave up everything for, even unto their lives; and greater love than this for his country hath no man, for they gave their lives for her. Now cannot, and will not the State do something to insure the truth of the history of the late war, that justice shall be done to the many deeds of valor of her numerous dead and living heroes?

I plead in behalf of those gallant, faithful men, who rushed to arms at the first call of our State, giving up all considerations of self and devoting themselves to her service, even unto death, believing that she would see that justice was done them and their deeds faithfully recorded. Now, when all others have deserted them, except our noble women, (whom may God ever protect and bless,) shall the State, who called them to their doom, desert them too? No, no, a thousand times no. I cannot believe that such base ingratitude shall ever stain the good name and fame of our State.

No State ever had better cause to be proud of the devoted attachment of her citizens, who became soldiers at her call, and performed deeds of valor upon so many battle fields, equal to those of any soldiers of ancient and modern times.

A christian gentleman, a citizen of a Northern State wishes to make a suggestion on this subject to the Southern people, which is contained in a private letter to a lady, which I am permitted to copy. He says, "I feel you will excuse me for a suggestion that I wish to make to the Southern people, and through yourself.

* * * Many, and I presume all the Northern States, have through some of their citizens published histories of the war (as they term them) and a record of the exploits and services of their troops, in the late unhappy conflict; many of these books are, although pretending to be fair and impartial, are mere tissues of false and defamatory statements of the cruelty and barbarity of the Southern troops, and of their inhuman treatment of prisoners, &c., &c. Now these histories serve two purposes, one of which may be counteracted by proper effort.

The first purpose is to gratify a low, coarse, brutal malignity, that desires to pursue a fallen foe, and the other is to form a mass of publications that will, in the future, mislead the historian, who would write an honest and philosophical history of the late struggle and thus falsify history. The Emperor Louis Napoleon, says in his introduction to his history of Julius Cæsar, that the facts of history should not be left sacred than the truths of religion.—The Southern people can do much to counteract this falsification of history by writing, and publishing a true statement of the facts, and in preserving the record of the many and great sacrifices, voluntarily submitted to for the right of free government, and the worse than vandal destruction of property of private persons noncombatants, not even sparing what savages would have respected; in short you can show for one case of brutality perpetrated on Northern men, ten suffered at their hands.

If these facts are all carefully collected and preserved they will do much to aid the future historian in doing justice to the institutions, justice and magnanimity of the South. Each county should have some efficient person to collect and preserve facts and these to be deposited with some competent person in each State who, from them, can publish a history of what each State performed in the war, and these, in the future would be valuable to the searcher after truth."

I would commend the above suggestion to the special attention of the Legislatures and press of the Southern States.

For the Sentinel.

To those gallant boys who have come forward, and are now so zealously working to perpetuate the names of their former comrades in arms.

All praise is due to your patriotism, and untiring energy. Your brows are already crowned with wreaths of laurel, won on each field from Bethel to Bentonsville, and you are now linking your names, in the memories of the fairer sex, with those martyred heroes, who never flinched, when duty called. We behold in you, with pride, and pleasure, that devotion to principle, which justly belongs to the sons of Carolina, and pledge ourselves to sustain you to the last. Be of good cheer, the more difficult the undertaking, the greater will be the cause for exultation when the work is complete; and the last evergreen is planted to mark that sacred spot, where repose in peace the ashes of your gallant comrades.

Pres'd. L. M. A.

SENATE CHAMBER,
Raleigh, N. C., Feb. 27th. 1867.

EDITORS SENTINEL:—According to suggestions made in your paper of a previous date, with regard to desired information as to minerals, &c., I have concluded to send you the accompanying letter from Prof. W. C. Kerr, State Geologist, and request its publication. The lands referred to, I am authorized to say, by all interested, will be sold in tracts to suit purchasers, at private sales, and in payments of one, two, three and four years. I would add that said lands are along and within reasonable distance of the Western North Carolina Railroad, now in progress of construction to Duck Town Copper Mines, where said road will intersect with Railways leading to Memphis and Little Rock, in Arkansas. Very respectfully,

JAMES R. LOVE.

GEOLOGICAL OFFICE,
Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 7th. 1867.

To Whom It May Concern—

At the request of Col. J. R. Love, I make the following statement of facts:

In the course of my geological explorations, during last summer, in the Mountain region of North Carolina, I passed over the large body of land, (said to be 40 or 50 thousand acres,) known as "the Love speculation," lying on the East fork of the Tuckasegee river, in Jackson County. This tract is crossed by the "Copper belt" of Jackson County, a well defined and extensive development of Copper bearing rocks, belonging to the primitive series of Metamorphic, schists, gneisses and slates. One at least of the copper "leads," or beds, appears to pass entirely across the tract from S. W. to N. E., of which the ferraginous outcrop is easily traceable and promises well. The soil of the larger part of this land is derived from a highly felspatic rock, gneissic and grand-toid, and abounds with hickory. The climate is adapted to the growth of grapes and fruits; apples do not grow better any where. The elevation above the sea level is 2,500—3,000 feet. Wheat does well in Haywood County, adjoining these lands, and would no doubt thrive here. The land lying along the water courses is arable, and much of the Mountain slopes and tops also, and the whole adapted to pasturage, and has a fine natural range. The water power is of course unlimited.

The lands belonging to the same parties in Haywood, lying East of those in Jackson, will probably be found to bear the same general character, judging from the strike of the rocks, and general formation of the region.

W. C. KERR,
State Geologist.

The South Should Act under the Sherman Bill---If not, Confiscation Will Follow.

The New York Times, edited by a Radical member of Congress, has the following menacing editorial:

"It is very well understood that bills are in course of preparation for early introduction into the next Congress, providing for a sweeping confiscation of rebel property in the Southern States, and for its distribution among the enfranchised slaves, for paying claims of loyal men for property destroyed during the war, and for giving farms to Northern soldiers who will settle in the South. Mr. Stevens has declared his purpose. 'God willing and he living,' to press such a measure as this upon Congress, and General Banks in debate declared himself in favor of such distribution of Southern farms among Northern soldiers as the only effectual mode of reconstructing Southern society. It may safely be assumed that the whole body of Radicals in Congress will go for such a measure; and it is confidently expected that the rejection by the South of the new terms now proposed will create a fresh feeling of resentment which will give it popularity and strength throughout the North. The measure itself has elements of attraction for many classes, and is expected to secure the support of the soldiers in a body.

"It may be supposed that the Supreme Court will present a final barrier against the ultimate success of such a project. But it must be remembered that four members of that court out of nine would now, beyond all doubt, endorse such a measure; and that of the five who would oppose it, one, if not two, will probably never again sit on the bench, in consequence of extreme age and illness. A law was passed, moreover, at the last session, which declares that in case of the death of a Supreme Court Judge the vacancy shall not be filled until the whole number of Judges shall have been reduced by death or otherwise to seven. The chances are, therefore, that within the next year the Supreme Court of the United States will be as thoroughly in the hands of the Radicals as Congress is."

FAITHFUL AGENT.—The Western Sentinel published at Winston, N. C., says:

This county is fortunate in having Mr. Reniган for agent of the Freedmen's Bureau. While he protects the negroes and secures them in all their rights, he requires them to be obedient to the laws, and conduct themselves properly.

HOUSE OF COMMONS,
RALEIGH, N. C., Feb. 26, 1867.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—In the discussion which transpired between Col. Cowan, of New Hanover and Col. Long, of Cabarras, in the House of Commons, on the resolutions introduced by Col. C. to levy additional taxes to pay the interest on the outstanding debt of the State, I fear a wrong impression has been created, that Col. Long and a majority of the House who voted with him, are in favor of repudiation.—Such is not the fact. Col. L. maintains no such opinions or principles; and I have yet to learn of a single member in that department of the Legislature that does. It was my fortune to listen attentively to the eloquent and convincing remarks, of Col. L. upon that occasion, and, without presuming to give a detailed account or statement of his argumen', I know that I am not mistaken in asserting, that Col. L. opposed the doctrine of repudiation as heartily and as boldly as did Col. Cowan. Col. L. said there was no son or citizen of the old North State more jealous of her honor or character than he was. That the idea of repudiation was abhorrent to him, that the debt of the State was a debt of honor and therefore more binding and sacred. He said it was a lamentable fact that the idea of repudiation had seized the minds of a considerable portion of the State, and if the resolutions under consideration were adopted, they would tend greatly to foster and increase the spirit and purposes of repudiation, and would ultimately culminate in this disastrous result. He contended that the people would learn that a State debt was different from an individual debt; the individual can be sued in the Courts and be made to pay; the State could only pay its debts by imposing taxes upon the people. A large majority of the Legislature had decided, that the people were unable to pay ten cents in the dollar on their domestic individual debts. We stated that most of the debt of the State was due to a people where there is a superabundance of currency, and that they ought not to expect or demand payment at this time, when we were plundered and impoverished by the late ruinous war.

Many of the people were driven already to despair on account of their unparallelled misfortunes and hardships. He (Col. L.) argued that notwithstanding all of this, give the people some little time to recuperate their ruined fortunes, and then appeal to their sense of justice, honor and State pride, and they would respond favorably.

To him it appeared strange that this measure was kept back until this Legislature had adopted a magnificent scheme of internal improvement.

The eloquent gentleman of New Hanover, seems to be the special advocate of this extensive scheme of improvements. As he is the leading defender of these resolutions of additional taxation upon the people, Col. L. asked the question: Why was this oppressive and burdensome taxation not embraced in the revenue bill, which had been adopted by both houses of the Legislature? He said the answer was plain: This wild system of internal improvement had not at that time been sufficiently matured.

I have thus given you a brief outline of the eloquent and impressive defence in behalf of the suffering people of the old North State, by Col. Long.

To me it is a matter of congratulation, that the Senate has to-day, by a decisive majority, concurred in the action of the House. And I will further add, that not a doubt remains but a vastly large majority of the people of the State so desire.

I will not trespass, Messrs. Editors, further upon your columns. PITT.

CONCLUSION OF THE LETTER OF GOVERNOR BROWN, OF GEORGIA, IN FAVOR OF RECONSTRUCTION.—"It only remains for me to add that I consider it the duty of the Governor of Georgia to call the Legislature together without delay, and to recommend the passage of an act calling a convention of the people of this State to so change our State Constitution as to provide for universal suffrage, in conformity to the measure which has passed Congress, known as the Sherman amendment, and to provide for the early election of a Legislature which will adopt the constitutional amendment in accordance with said requirements.

"We now have the assurance of Congress, in the passage of this bill, that this shall settle the question of our admission. We shall never get better terms. Let us comply with them, and be ready to be represented in the next Congress as soon as possible. I respectfully suggest that the people of the several counties of this State who favor the proposed action hold public meetings with as little delay as possible, and urge upon the Governor to convene the Legislature, and recommend them to take prompt action.

"The Governor and Legislature were elected before the constitutional amendment was proposed. I respectfully submit that this is their imperative duty, in the present condition of the country, to take the necessary steps to refer the question to the people at the ballot box. The most appropriate mode of doing this is to order an election of delegates to a Convention to act upon the proposition now submitted by Congress. This they cannot with propriety refuse if the people demand it; let the people speak.

If the State will adopt this line of policy, and the Convention will memorialize Congress, asking that the judges, county officers, and others necessary to the efficient working of the State government, be relieved from the provisions of the constitutional amendment, I believe the petition, if presented in a proper spirit, will be granted, and we shall soon be relieved of much of the gloom which is now widespread over the whole South. If we reject the terms proposed in the Sherman bill, I confess I see no hope for the future. Should we accept them, I trust the example of Georgia may be followed by the other States, and that this vexed question may soon be permanently settled upon the best terms we shall ever be able to get.

I am aware of the rapidity of the changes which we are required to make, and of the natural prejudices which our people entertain against negro suffrage; but we should not forget, in yielding to an inevitable necessity, that these people were raised among us and naturally sympathize with us. Their conduct during the war proved this. If, then, we treat them kindly, pay them their wages promptly, and in all respects deal justly by them, we shall seldom have cause to complain of their refusal to respect our wishes or consult our interest at the ballot box."

Our Thursday Morning Dispatches.

Congress.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.

The House was in committee of the whole on the tariff. Western men made a persistent fight on the protection of raw material. The committee occupied from 2½ to 4 o'clock on the hemp question. The proceedings had a filibustering look, and the House adjourned at half past four without progress.

In the Senate the, bill removing cases involving over five hundred dollars, from State to Federal Courts, on affidavit of either party, passed.

The House bill redeeming compound interest notes was considered. A substitute was offered authorizing temporary loan certificates bearing three per cent payable on demand. Legal reserve National Banks may embrace three-fifths of these loans. National Banks are forbidden to pay or receive interest on reserve deposits from other National banks.

The civil appropriation bill was resumed.—Several Senators maintained that in view of the threats of the President's organs, that it was necessary that Congress should surround itself with friends. This question originated in the appropriation for the Superintendent of the Capitol buildings. It was claimed that the Senate should appoint an Executive Session.

A Scene in the House.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.

During the debate on the amendment striking out the pay of Southern officers, Sumner accused Secretary McCulloch of falsehood, in the statement of his inability to secure revenue officers in the South, who can take the test oath.

Sherman passionately retorted that Sumner's language was neither parliamentary nor gentlemanly, but false. Chandler, Echols and Sumner indulged in epithets characterized by Mr. Fessenden as foul-mouthed.

WE OFFER TO THE PUBLIC THIS CELEBRATED Oil, and in doing so we unhesitatingly pronounce it SUPERIOR TO ANY BURNING OIL IN USE. It is Non-Explosive, Free from Grease. It will not grease the hands. It will not soil or grease the clothing. It is more brilliant than Gas. It produces a soft and beautiful light. It is not so trying to the eyes. It can be used in any Kerosene Lamp by adopting our LIGHT HOUSE OR RATCHET BURNERS.

It has been most favorably received, and pronounced by judges to be the

THE BEST AND MOST RELIABLE OIL

now in the market; and in consequence of the many serious accidents arising from the EXPLOSION OF KEROSENE, this Oil is extensively known and used in preference.

We are now prepared to furnish the trade with this valuable Oil, and we solicit from the public an examination and trial.

We have on hand a large stock of
LAMPS, BURNERS, CHIMNEYS, WICKS, &c., and can supply the trade on liberal terms.

First Premium Awarded at the Louisiana State Fair held in New Orleans, from Nov. 20th, to 27th, 1866, against all Competitors.

PERUVIAN GUANO SUBSTITUTE!
BAUGH'S
RAW BONE SUPER-PHOSPHATE OF LIME.

Manufactured under the formula originated in 1854 and patented by
BAUGH & SONS,
SOLE PROPRIETORS, AT THE
Delaware River Chemical Works,
PHILADELPHIA, U. S. A.

This old established MANURE is manufactured from Bones that have not been burned or steamed, and it contains all their original organic matter. It is active in its operation, and is a fertilizer of great durability. It does not exhaust the soil like Peruvian Guano but on the contrary permanently improves it.

Previous to 1861 it was introduced into the Southern States to considerable extent, and again in 1865, where it has been used with remarkable success upon Cotton, Corn, Tobacco, and all Crops.

A trial will convince any planter of its merits.—Pamphlets containing well-known Southern evidence furnished upon application to New York or Philadelphia officers.

☞ Sold by Dealers in all the principal cities and towns throughout the United States and British Provinces.

FERTILIZERS FOR SPRING CROPS.

WE beg to inform the trade and planters of North Carolina and Virginia, that we are prepared to furnish them with the most approved FERTILIZERS, on the most accommodating terms. We will have a stock of genuine PERUVIAN GUANO, purchased direct from the Agent of the Peruvian Government.

We have now in store, for immediate delivery, 325 tons BRADLEY'S SUPER PHOSPHATE OF LIME, which won for itself such an enviable reputation in the Cotton and Tobacco counties of North Carolina and Virginia, last season, proving itself equal, and in many important respects, superior to the Peruvian Guano. We give an analysis of it as ascertained by Dr. Hayes, one of the most eminent C emists in the country:

Results of Analyses Made of Bradley's Patent Super-Phosphate of Lime, as now sold by Wm. L. Bradley.

100 PARTS CONSIST OF
Moisture	5.30
Prepared animal matter, salts of Ammonia, fatty substances and Humus	38.50
Bone Phosphates of Lime, Magnesia and Iron (Soluble Phosphates of do. 16 6-10.)	36.80
Sulphate of Lime	16.50
Salts	20
Insoluble	2.60
	99.90

The animal matter afforded 4 2-10 parts of Ammonia when it was decomposed, and, as will be seen, nearly one-half of the Bone Phosphate is soluble.

After many analyses of your Super-Phosphate of Lime, made during the last few months, I have found your standard of quality full equal to that of any you have ever sold in former years; and I am satisfied that you include the correct principles in the manufacture. Respectfully,

A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.

We refer to the following gentlemen who tested its merits last season:

LIFE INSURANCE.

MANY insure their lives because they see the folly of neglecting to do so. Many who do not insure argue that it is folly to insure. Which is right? If those who do not insure can cite instances of the harm done by a policy of life Insurance, if they can point out men who have lost $5,000 to $100,000 by Life Insurance, then upon proof of same, we must believe them. Hundreds of instances can readily be shown where parties have been benefitted to this extent.—In North Carolina there are some Widows and Children ready to testify to the good resulting from a life Insurance on their only earthly dependence.

The "Ætna Life Co., in loosing $23,000 the past year has relieved want—and now with over $4,000,000 of assets—offers sure protection to all those who will avail themselves of her liberal terms, by calling on 1867. "THE WORLD" 1867.

THE ATTENTION OF THE PUBLIC IS INVITED to the claims of "THE WORLD" as one of the leading public journals of the country. It is the chief organ of the Democratic Party of the United States, and the foremost advocate of the immediate restoration of the Union. Its highest merit consists in its character as An enterprising and Trustworthy Newspaper.

The next year bids fair to be a more critical one in the history of our free institutions, than even any of the eventful ones that have preceded it. The first requisite for an intelligent judgment of public affairs is a full and authentic account of facts as they transpire. These THE WORLD always aims to give with conscientious accuracy, and with equal fullness and fidelity, whether they make for or against its own views of public policy. Prompt activity in spreading before its readers every kind of news in which any part of the public takes an interest, is the first duty of a newspaper, and the facilities of THE WORLD for discharging this obligation are unsurpassed by those of any journal in the United States. Whatever else it may fail in, it certainly will not fail to furnish the news, nor to supply it with such promptitude, spirit, freshness, abundance, variety, accuracy, and candor, that no class of readers can miss anything of interest which they wish to find. THE WORLD will publish documents and arguments prepared by political foes just as freely as those prepared by political friends; making its own comments on them, of course, but never suppressing or garbling them because they are calculated to damage its own party. Adverse arguments which it cannot refute, it is content to leave to make their full impression. THE WORLD adopts this rule because it believes no other is honest; because it conceives that its first duty to its readers is to keep them thoroughly informed on every passing subject of importance.
